I Timothy 3:1-7

1 The saying is trustworthy: If anyone aspires to the office of overseer, he desires a noble task.

2 Therefore an overseer must be above reproach, the husband of one wife, sober-minded, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach,

3 not a drunkard, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money.

4 He must manage his own household well, with all dignity keeping his children submissive,

5 for if someone does not know how to manage his own household, how will he care for God's church?

6 He must not be a recent convert, or he may become puffed up with conceit and fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must be well thought of by outsiders, so that he may not fall into disgrace, into a snare of the devil.

Scripture reference are from the English Standard Version.

Special Collection!

We are going to have a special collection on Oct 6th for Churches of Christ Disaster Relief. They respond to major disasters in the U.S. by sending trucks of food, water, and supplies to local churches that aid disaster victims. Thank you!

I would like to thank you from the bottom of my heart for supporting my project at YAA. Our students are blessed by the food you provide. That being said I've decided the best way to collect items is to have set dates. We have a good bit of food at this time so my next collection will be December 1. About a week prior to the collection I will give a list of needed items. Thank you again for everything you do to show God's love to our community.

*In Christ,
Julie H.*
